Burnley

Much more than just office space.

Where modern style meets with tradition.

Set in a prestigious building in an ideal town centre location and with easy access to the M65 and motorway network, Lodge House offers a location that is easily accessible and also desirable, being close to bars, shops and restaurants.

The highly designed offices are flooded with natural light and range in size from 150-2500 sqft. All are pre-cabled for IT and telecoms, are fully DDA compliant and have uncompromising character and unrivalled specification. Ideal for those wanting the freedom of conventional space and the luxury of high levels of services and facilities and take advantage of our high speed internet connectivity and feature rich telephony service including, telephone answering, call centre packages and home worker solutions.

You can also make full use of the meeting rooms which offer a great location to meet with existing or potential clients. Benefit from access to presentation equipment and Wifi coupled with delicious catering options to suit any taste and dietary requirement.

The perfect setting for corporate success where period features and contemporary style join to create beautiful offices in the heart of Lancashire.
